Publication of Data and Nature of Participation

1. The public publication of results, including at least the participant's first name, last name, country, club, and age category, is an integral part of the sporting competition and represents the essence of the IRONMAN event. The official public results serve as the historical record of the event.
2. Each Athlete, during registration, makes a choice regarding the public disclosure of their data in the official results and the start list.
3. Athletes who consent to the publication of their data take part in the Race under standard conditions, are included in all relevant classifications (overall, age group, etc.), and are eligible to receive awards.
4. Athletes who do not consent to the public disclosure of their data will be automatically assigned to the "Open Division" category.
5. Athletes assigned to the category referred to in point 4:
    a. Take full part in the Race and are entitled to all Organizer's services, including time measurement.
    b. Upon finishing the Race within the time limit, they receive a commemorative medal.

c. Their result (finish time) will be recorded, but in the official results lists they will appear under the identifier “Anonymous Athletes” (or similar), without a placement number.
d. They will not be classified in any category (age group, Poznań Champion, TriClub Ranking, etc.) and are not entitled to awards or qualification for the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship.

6. Choosing not to consent to the publication of data is equivalent to accepting the participation rules described in point 5 and constitutes a final decision to withdraw from competitive participation in favor of recreational participation.

XIII. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

1. The personal data of athletes is administered by Sport Evolution Group Sp. z o.o., Jana Kochanowskiego 12/23, 01-864 Warsaw, contact regarding personal data at: daneosobowe@sportevolution.pl. In relation to some participant data IRONMAN® Germany Germany GmbH Höchster Strasse 90, 65835 Liederbach, Germany are joint controllers.
2. The information provided by you during your registration for the Event and your participation data from the Event will be collected and used by the Event Operator in accordance with the Event Operator’s privacy practices. As part of the IRONMAN 70.3 Global Series, some of this information will also be shared with and used by The IRONMAN Group in accordance with The IRONMAN Group’s Privacy Policy (available via https://www.ironman.com/privacy-policy). Your information will be used by both the Event Operator and The IRONMAN Group to deliver your race experience and enhance the IRONMAN 70.3 experience in future.
3. The personal data of athletes will be processed for the purpose of organizing and conducting the event, determining the winner, awarding, issuing, receiving, and settling the prize, as well as other activities related to the conducted business.
4. To perform time measurement, create results, send information about the start number, and the achieved result, athlete data will be provided to the company responsible for timekeeping during the event.
5. The athlete has the right to access and correct their data. Providing personal data and giving consent to their processing is voluntary but necessary to achieve the above-mentioned purposes. Failure to provide data or lack of consent to their processing prevents participation in the competition. Please note that the given consent can be revoked at any time; however, revocation does not affect the lawfulness of data processing prior to withdrawal.
6. The processing of athlete data, in connection with participation in the event, also includes the publication of the athlete's name, year of birth, club affiliation along with the name of the place of residence—in any way the project will be published.

7. All information about participants obtained by the organizer and included in the registration form will be electronically stored and used in accordance with applicable legal regulations.
8. The organizer reserves the right to conduct interviews with each participant, take photos and film them for advertising, promotional, internet, radio-television broadcast, and other commercial purposes.
9. The organizer reserves the right to use free of charge worldwide all photos, film materials, interviews, and sound recordings depicting competition participants. They may be used by the organizer by placing them on CD-ROMs, DVDs, portable devices such as pendrives or external drives, cloud services, in catalogs, and media, on websites, in newspapers, and exhibitions, as well as for promotional and advertising purposes related to the organizer's activities.
10. The data retention period is as follows:
    a. For data processed for the purpose of pursuing potential legal claims—until the claim is time-barred or the proceedings related to pursuing claims are concluded.
    b. For data processed to document conducted activities and inform about them—no more than 5 years from the date of the documented event, unless the data is processed for archival purposes in the public interest.
    c. For data processed to ensure the security of networks and IT systems—no more than 5 years from the date of registration.
    d. For data processed based on the participant's consent—until the consent is withdrawn.
11. To withdraw consent for the processing of personal data, the participant should complete the form available at https://slotmarket.pl/document/polityka-prywatnosci and send it to contact@slotmarket.pl.

XIV. COMPLAINTS

1. A written protest regarding the non-compliant behavior of athletes, non-compliance with the provisions in other matters related to the race or the decision of the judges may be submitted to the main judge within 5 minutes from the end of the race (the last athlete running in) at the head referee with a deposit paid the amount of USD 50 (WT Rules art. 12.7a).
2. Complaints related to event matters should be submitted in writing along with a justification to the organizer's correspondence address, marked "IRONMAN 70.3 Poznań - Complaint," within 7 days from the date of the event—either in person, by registered mail (postmark date determines), or to the email address: poznan70.3@ironman.com with the subject " IRONMAN 70.3 Poznań– Complaint”.
3. Complaints submitted after the deadline specified in point 2 of Chapter XIV will not be considered.

4. The organizer will review complaints about the event within 14 days from the date of their receipt.
5. The Organizer's decision on complaints about the event will be final.
6. The above does not limit the Consumer's rights to pursue claims based on the absolutely applicable provisions of the law before the common courts.

XV. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. All Event participants are bound by these Regulations.
2. The Rules shall apply from November 4, 2025.
3. Each participant is obliged to read the regulations.
4. Lack of knowledge of the Event rules does not exempt the athlete from the rules specified by the organizer in these regulations
5. Ignorance of the Regulations does not release the athlete from the rules specified by the Organizer in these Regulations.
6. It is forbidden to bring any kind of narcotic, illegal substance, drugs improving athletic performance, as well as alcoholic products to the area encompassing the Event. Participants are prohibited from taking such drugs and substances both before and during the race, failure to abide by this rule may result in exclusion from participation in the Event. If it is found that an athlete violates the above prohibition, the organizer reserves the right not to allow him to participate in the race or exclude him during the race.
7. No athlete may use measures or actions to increase efficiency. Any attempt of doping will be dealt in accordance with the IRONMAN Anti-Doping Rules. Athletes may be required to undergo testing before and after the Event. If an athlete is called upon to control, he/she is required to appear for inspection.
8. The Medical Control Rules are in accordance with IRONMAN Anti-Doping Rules on banned substances and will be binding on all athletes. In addition, other rules and regulations, even if not yet recognized by the IRONMAN Anti-Doping Rules, may be instituted, which if such occurs, you agree to abide by.
9. On the reverse of the bib number there will be a table that each athlete should fill in for easier identification in the case of an accident. The table contains data on the medications taken, possible allergies and the telephone number of the person to be contacted by the Organizer in the case of an accident.
10. The organizer provides emergency medical care along the route and at the finish line.
11. The event Organizer provides safety in the water during the race (through WOPR).
12. The Organizer shall provide a deposit. Valuables cannot be left in the deposit, but only things necessary for basic needs both before and after the Event.

13. The Organizer is not responsible for lost valuables during the Event.
14. The organizer takes responsibility only for equipment left in the Transition Zone which is necessary to complete the race, i.e.: bicycle, helmet, shoes, wetsuit. Additional equipment (watches, bicycle computers, goggles, etc.) are left in the Transition Zone at the athlete's own risk.
15. In case of theft or damage to equipment, each athlete is obliged to report this fact to the Organizer representative in the Transition zone and the police. Entries will be accepted by the Organizer only until it receives the equipment and leave the Transition zone by an athlete.
16. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel or modify the event, stating the reasons. In the event that the swimming segment cannot take place (red flag), the swimming stage will be shortened or canceled.
17. The event will take place regardless of weather conditions.
18. The Organizer reserves the right to make rule changes at any time provided all athletes are notified in writing and/or at the pre-race athlete briefing meeting. Notification of any change will be in accordance with WTC procedures.
19. Absence of technical check doesn't exempt the athlete from complying with these Regulations on this check-in.
20. Each of Organizer and WTC may assign these Regulations to other entity/s or individual/s ("assignees") at any time, and any such assignment will grant assignees the full rights and protections accorded in these Regulations, consistent with Organizer's, WTC's and other Released Parties' rights and protections under these Regulations.
21. Only the organizer of the event is entitled to a binding and final interpretation of the regulations of these regulations. If any of the provisions of the Regulations is partially or entirely changed - all other provisions remain valid.
22. The organizer reserves the right to change the name of the event
23. In matters not covered by the regulations, the Organizer shall decide on the basis of the applicable law. The above does not limit the right to court in case of a dispute.

XVI. REGULATIONS RELATED TO FORCE MAJEURE

1. In the event of cancellation due to a pandemic, another state of emergency, or other circumstances beyond the Organizer's control (so-called "force majeure"), the athlete will receive a voucher equivalent to the value of the entry fee paid, which can be used for IRONMAN events taking place the following year, or the athlete will have the option to receive a refund within the timeframe specified by the Organizer.
2. In the event of a change in the event date due to a pandemic or other state of threat or emergency, as well as due to factors beyond the organizer's control (so-called "force majeure"), the athlete will be transferred to the new competition date based on the agreement concluded with the organizer. The athlete will have the opportunity to apply for a refund of the entry fee within the timeframe specified by the organizer.

3. In the event of the cancellation or rescheduling of the event due to a pandemic or other state of threat or emergency, as well as due to factors beyond the organizer's control (so-called "force majeure"), money for purchased additional services will be refunded to the participant within 180 days. The purchased insurance and license is not subject to a refund.
4. Force majeure, within the meaning of these Regulations, encompasses all unforeseeable situations or events of an exceptional nature beyond the control of the organizer, preventing the fulfillment of any of the obligations specified in these Regulations, not resulting from the organizer's error or negligence, and remaining insurmountable despite exercising all due diligence, in particular: events of natural disasters such as floods, hurricanes, extraordinary force winds, tornadoes, earthquakes, exceptionally intense and prolonged downpours, or extraordinary and external events that could not be prevented (such as war, martial law restrictions, uprising, revolution, riots, terrorist attacks), epidemic threats, states of epidemic threat, epidemics, and states of epidemic, as well as new legal acts or decisions of administrative authorities preventing the Organizer from fulfilling its obligations. Neither the organizer nor the participants are liable for non-performance or improper performance of the provisions of these Regulations caused by force majeure.
